

Alexandria announces March 6, 2014, 6:30 PM Waterfront Community Meeting #4 at United Way Worldwide Mary Gates Center, 701 N. Fairfax Street, Alexandria, VA

The City of Alexandria, VA will hold Waterfront Community Meeting #4 on Thursday, March 6, 2014, 6:30 – 9:00 PM at the United Way Worldwide Mary Gates Center, 701 N. Fairfax Street, as part of Alexandria's Waterfront Landscape and Flood Mitigation Design Project. A composite design for the Core Area extending from Duke to Queen Street will be shared for community input. Also for community input will be information related to flood mitigation and common elements such as lighting, furnishings, and materials, and there will be more discussion related to art and history.

This is the fourth meeting of a four-part Waterfront Community Meeting Series on the Landscape and Flood Mitigation Design Project. For information on the previous three meetings, please link to the following presentations: Presentation #1 (Evening with Laurie Olin - October 2013); Presentation #2 (Programming, Art, History and Lighting - November 2013); and Presentation #3 (Design Options for the Core Waterfront Area - February 2014). Also, the public will find community input online associated with these presentations.

Following this meeting, public meetings will occur with the Planning Commission and City Council on this project in April and June 2014.
